Andrea Šulcová is a singer, songwriter and flutist active in the genres of folk, bluegrass, acoustic pop and jazz. She was born in the Czech Republic in 1991.

After completing her studies at Jaroslav Ježek Conservatory in Prague, she became the first flute player ever studying at the jazz department of the Kunstuniversität Graz in Austria. Since 2015 she has been member of the unique jazz formation Concept Art Orchestra, playing the flute and contributing to the ensemble's management, together with Štěpánka Balcarová. For three years, Andrea was a member of the Vesna band (flutes, voice), a project combining music with visual arts, dance and fashion. She appeared as guest with Pavel Bobek, also having recorded vocals on his last CD. She has maintained long-term collaboration with violinist and guitarist Pepa Malina (Malina Brothers). During her studies abroad she performed with many jazz formations and musicians all over Europe, including Balázs Balogh, Grazias or Luboš Soukup. She was also selected and invited to SOFIA (Supporting of Female Improvising Artists) in Switzerland, as well as on tour in Denmark with saxophonist Nicole Johäntgenn and Kathrine Winfeld, Stina Andersdotter and Dorota Piotrowska.

In 2018 she was forced to put her musical activities on hold due to serious health problems. In 2020 she started to dedicate herself to songwriting and solo singing, and to release singles and musical videos in collaboration with pianist Vít Kříšťan or the double bass player Robert Balzar. In November 2021 she released a solo EP "Nobody Knows", featuring six original songs. One year later, in November 2022, Andrea Šulcová releases her debut album "Opportunities". The twelve original songs and English lyrics, all authored by the young singer herself, draw on contemporary folk and pop music. The album is produced by Petr Ostrouchov who also performs in the accompanying band, alongside musicians associated with Blue Shadows, guitarist Josef Štěpánek, bassists Jaromír Honzák and Matěj Belko, drummer Martin Novák and pianist Vít Kříšťan. Most of them are members of Andrea's concert band as well. At present, she divides her time between Prague and Dresden, performing and teaching music.

„...the album is a great success...”

Marek Reinoha, Headliner, 12/2022

"Opportunities by Andrea Šulcová is one of the most pleasant surprises of this year. In its positive outlook on the world, it is a sincere album that is communicative in content, but also pleasing musically. Among other things, by the way the two components complement each other and hold tightly together."

Jiří V. Matýsek, musicserver, 12/2022

„The pop country song with a beautiful piano solo "It's Not the End", the pensive "When You're So Far Away", the in a good way catchy "Like the Stars", or "The Perfect Place to Live" bringing back the spirit of Crosby, Still, Nash & Young's work deserve nods of recognition."

Roman Jireš ČTK, Rock&Pop, 1/2023
